

STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURE

Front-desk reply SOP

20-minute setup, HIPAA-aware reply rules, the 7-question safety check, and the daily / weekly / monthly cadence.

PRODUCT

Med Spa Review + Local SEO Toolkit

$49 one-time · 7-day refund · Google Drive folder of editable assets.

SUPPORT

hello@spareply.com

A real human reads every email — same business day on most issues. spareply.com

SpaReply is informational. The toolkit is HIPAA-aware editorial guidance — not legal, medical, or compliance advice. Final compliance decisions belong with your provider, privacy officer, and counsel.

Front-desk review reply SOP

SpaReply Med Spa Review + Local SEO Toolkit · editable copy Owner: [Practice Manager Name] · Last reviewed: [Date] · Clinic: [Practice Name]

This SOP is the working version of the cadence on /toolkit. Copy it into your clinic's shared drive, fill in the bracketed fields, and tape a printed copy next to the front-desk workstation.

Purpose

Reply to every Google review for [Practice Name] within 24 business hours, without confirming protected health information in public, and without burning weekend hours on it. Five people max should ever touch this workflow:

- Front-desk lead — drafts replies, runs the safety check, posts approved replies.
- Practice manager — approves 4–5 star drafts, co-drafts every 1–2 star reply.
- Owner — joins the Friday huddle, reads the monthly roll-up.
- Provider on call — reviewed for any clinical concern raised in a review.
- Office manager — handles billing or scheduling escalations.

The 20-minute weekly setup block

Block this once with whoever owns review replies at [Practice Name]. After this block runs, the daily and weekly cadence below should fit inside one cup of coffee.

Minutes	Action
0–3	Pin /toolkit in the front-desk browser. Open Google Business Profile in a second tab and sort reviews by newest.
3–8	Read the HIPAA-aware reply rules below once. Print page two of this SOP and tape it next to the workstation.
8–14	Triage the open review queue. Anything 3 stars or below routes to the practice manager before posting.

14–18	Draft the first three replies from the template bank. Replace placeholders. Run the 7-question safety check.
18–20	Add the daily and weekly cadence to the shared calendar. Confirm who covers each slot.

HIPAA-aware reply rules

SpaReply is HIPAA-aware editorial guidance, not legal, privacy, or compliance advice. Have your privacy officer or counsel review your clinic's policy before publishing replies. The rules below are the editorial guardrails the template bank was written against.

Do

- Thank the guest by first name only.
- Acknowledge the visit without naming the treatment unless the guest named it first.
- Praise the team member by first name if the guest named them.
- Invite further conversation through a private channel for anything sensitive.
- Keep replies under 60 words for 5-star and under 90 words for negative reviews.
- Have a second person read every reply before it goes live.

Don't

- Confirm or deny that someone is or was a patient at [Practice Name].
- Name a specific treatment the guest didn't already mention publicly.
- Reference dosages, units, brands, products, or clinical outcomes.
- Apologize in a way that admits liability before the practice manager reviews.
- Promise refunds, comps, or remedies in public — move those offline.
- Use exclamation points, emoji, or all-caps. The clinical tone is the point.

The 7-question pre-post safety check

Run this on every reply before it goes live. If any answer is "no," send the draft back to the practice manager.

1. Did the guest write the detail publicly first?
2. Is the reply free of treatment specifics the guest did not name?
3. Free of outcome promises (skin cleared, pain gone, results lasted)?
4. Was anything sensitive moved to a private channel?
5. Has a second person at [Practice Name] read this?
6. Does the tone match a calm, well-run clinic?
7. Are we within 24 business hours of the review going live?

Operating cadence

When	Who	What
Daily · 10 min	Front-desk lead	Pull yesterday's new reviews. Draft replies for 4- and 5-star into the shared doc. Flag anything 3 stars or below for the practice manager — do not draft those publicly until cleared.
Daily · 15 min	Practice manager	Approve the 4–5 star drafts, post them, log to tracker. Personally draft (or co-draft) every 1–2 star reply with the front-desk lead.
Tuesday · 20 min	Front-desk lead	Run the weekly SOP: triage, draft, safety check, post, log, scan for one signal to bring to Friday.
Friday · 10 min huddle	Owner / practice manager / front-desk lead	Share one repeating compliment and one repeating concern from this week's reviews. Decide one operational tweak. Don't try to fix everything.
Monthly · 30 min	Practice manager	Roll up the tracker: count by star rating, category, provider. One page, plain language. Share with owner and providers.
Quarterly · 60 min	Owner	Re-read the rules, the negative-review playbook, and the templates. Refresh placeholders for any new providers, services, or pricing.

Internal review tracker — column spec

Use the matching CSV in this folder. Columns:

- Date · Guest first name · Star rating · Category · Provider · Public reply (link) · Private follow-up status · Resolution

Rules:

- One row per review. Never enter PHI.
- "Category" values: clinical, operational, billing, hostile, praise.
- "Private follow-up status": none / sent / replied / resolved.
- "Resolution" is plain language, one line. The tracker is for signal at the monthly roll-up — not a clinical record.

Escalation contacts

- Practice manager: [Practice Manager Name] · [Practice Manager Email] · [Phone]
- Owner: [Owner Name] · [Owner Email]
- Provider on call this month: [Provider Name]
- Office manager (billing): [Office Manager Name] · [Office Manager Email]
- SpaReply support (toolkit access, files, refund): hello@spareply.com

If a review violates Google's policy (off-topic, fake, conflict of interest, hate speech), flag it through your GBP dashboard. Don't argue with it publicly while you wait — post the calm default reply, then flag.

REPLY TEMPLATES · 20 SCENARIOS

Review reply template bank

20 paste-ready replies across 5-star praise, staff shoutouts, treatment mentions, neutrals, wait-time and pricing complaints, and negative reviews — plus the PHI-risky to safer rewrite table.

PRODUCT

Med Spa Review + Local SEO Toolkit

$49 one-time · 7-day refund · Google Drive folder of editable assets.

SUPPORT

hello@spareply.com

A real human reads every email — same business day on most issues. spareply.com

SpaReply is informational. The toolkit is HIPAA-aware editorial guidance — not legal, medical, or compliance advice. Final compliance decisions belong with your provider, privacy officer, and counsel.

Review reply template bank

SpaReply Med Spa Review + Local SEO Toolkit · editable copy Clinic: [Practice Name] · Last reviewed: [Date]

Twenty paste-ready replies across the seven scenarios your front desk will see this week. Each reply is short, calm, and edited to avoid confirming clinical specifics. Replace bracketed placeholders, then run the 7-question safety check from the SOP before posting.

1. Five-star praise · general

Guidance: Short, warm, clinical. Thank by first name, acknowledge the team, invite a return — without naming any treatment the guest didn't mention.

Warm tone · no treatment named

Thank you for the kind note, [guest first name]. The team appreciated caring for you, and we're glad the visit felt calm and professional. We look forward to welcoming you back.

Polished tone · first-time guest

Welcome to the clinic, [guest first name], and thank you for trusting us with your first visit. The whole team is glad you felt at ease — we'll be here whenever you'd like to come back.

Clinical tone · returning guest

Thank you, [guest first name]. It's a pleasure to have you back with us. We appreciate you taking a moment to share your experience, and we look forward to your next visit.

2. Five-star praise · staff shoutout

Guidance: Echo only the staff first name the guest used. Don't add titles or scope ("injector," "laser tech") that the guest didn't write themselves.

Provider named by guest

Thank you for the kind words, [guest first name]. [Provider first name] and the team appreciated caring for you — we'll pass your message along. We look forward to welcoming you back.

Front desk shoutout

Thank you, [guest first name]. [Front-desk first name] takes a lot of pride in making the front of the clinic feel calm and welcoming, and we'll share your note with them. We look forward to seeing you again.

Whole-team shoutout

Thank you, [guest first name]. The whole team will be glad to hear this. We're proud of the way they care for every guest, and your kind words mean a lot.

3. Treatment mention by guest

Guidance: Only when the guest named the treatment first. Reflect their wording neutrally — don't add brand names, units, or outcome promises.

Hydrafacial · guest-named

Thank you for the kind note, [guest first name]. We're glad the visit felt refreshing, and the team enjoyed taking care of you. We look forward to welcoming you back when you're ready.

Injectables · guest-named

Thank you for trusting us with your visit, [guest first name]. Our providers take a careful, conservative approach, and we're glad you felt that during your appointment. We look forward to seeing you again.

Laser / peel / membership · guest-named

Thank you, [guest first name]. We're glad the experience felt calm and well-explained from start to finish. The team will appreciate your kind words — we look forward to your next visit.

4. Neutral 3-star reviews

Guidance: Acknowledge specifically what the guest flagged. Don't argue. Offer a private channel. Keep it under 90 words.

Mixed feedback · default

Thank you for the honest feedback, [guest first name]. We take notes like yours seriously and we'd like to understand the experience better. Please reach our practice manager at [Practice Manager Email] so we can listen and improve. We appreciate you taking the time to share this.

Liked the visit, not the booking

Thank you for sharing this, [guest first name]. We're glad the visit itself felt good, and we hear you on the booking experience — we're working on tightening that. If you'd like to share more, please email [Practice Manager Email] so we can follow up directly.

5. Wait-time complaint

Guidance: Acknowledge the time, don't make excuses, name the operational change you'll consider. Move details to a private channel.

Long check-in or chair time

We're sorry your visit didn't run on time, [guest first name]. Schedule slips are something we take seriously, and your note will go to our practice manager so we can review what happened. Please email [Practice Manager Email] if you'd like to talk through it directly — we'd appreciate the chance to make it right.

Recurring delays · regular guest

Thank you for the candor, [guest first name]. You shouldn't be waiting that long, especially as a regular. Our practice manager would like to look at your recent visits and understand what's happening on our end — please reach them at [Practice Manager Email].

6. Pricing complaint

Guidance: Don't defend the price publicly. Validate the guest's experience, point them to a consult, and move money conversations offline.

Sticker shock · membership-fit guest

Thank you for sharing this, [guest first name]. Pricing should be clear before you book, and we hear you. If you'd like, our practice manager can walk you through the options — including our membership — at [Practice Manager Email]. We appreciate the feedback either way.

Felt the value didn't match

We're sorry the value of your visit didn't land the way it should have, [guest first name]. We'd like to understand more so we can do better. Please email [Practice Manager Email] — we read every note personally and we'll follow up directly.

7. Negative review · offline follow-up

Guidance: Default public reply: short, calm, route to private channel. Never debate facts publicly. Never confirm clinical specifics. Always escalate 1- and 2-star reviews to the practice manager before posting.

1& default · no clinical claims

We're sorry your visit didn't feel as seamless as it should have, [guest first name]. We appreciate you bringing this to our attention. Please contact our practice manager at [Practice Manager Email] so we can listen, review the details, and follow up offline with care.

1& clinical concern raised

Thank you for taking the time to write this, [guest first name]. Your wellbeing matters to us, and we want to make sure the right person on our team follows up. Please email our practice manager at [Practice Manager Email] so we can connect you with a licensed provider directly.

2& billing or scheduling issue

We're sorry this didn't go the way it should have, [guest first name]. Billing and scheduling questions are best handled directly so we can look into your specific account. Please email [Practice Manager Email] and we'll get back to you the same business day.

Hostile tone · stay calm, don't engage

We hear you, [guest first name], and we're sorry the experience felt this way. Our practice manager would like the chance to listen and understand more. Please reach them at [Practice Manager Email] when you're able — we'll respond personally.

PHI-risky phrasing !' safer rewrite

Six rewrites pulled from real review responses. Use these when training a new front-desk lead at [Practice Name].

Risky	Why it's a problem	Safer rewrite
"So glad your Botox at our [city] location went well!"	Confirms a specific treatment and a specific location for a named individual.	"Thank you for trusting our team with your visit. We're glad it felt calm and professional — we look forward to welcoming you back."
"We're sorry the laser hair removal package didn't meet your expectations."	Confirms the treatment and implies a paid course of care for the named guest.	"We're sorry your visit didn't feel as seamless as it should have. Please reach our practice manager at [Practice Manager Email] so we can listen and follow up privately."
"[Provider first name] is one of our best injectors — she'll take great care of you next time."	Implies the guest received injectables and discloses provider scope of practice in a public reply.	"[Provider first name] and the team appreciated caring for you. We'll pass your kind words along — we look forward to welcoming you back."
"Sorry the results from your peel weren't what you wanted — refund issued."	Confirms treatment, outcome, and a financial remedy publicly. Refunds belong offline.	"We're sorry your visit didn't meet your expectations. Please email [Practice Manager Email] so we can discuss this privately and make it right."
"Your Hydrafacial with [Provider] at our Tuesday clinic was such a treat for us!"	Confirms treatment, provider, day, and location for a named guest in one line.	"Thank you for the kind note. The team appreciated caring for you and looks forward to welcoming you back."
"Glad your skin cleared up after the chemical peel — see you next month!"	Confirms a clinical outcome and a return appointment publicly.	"Thank you for sharing this. We're glad the visit felt calm and professional, and we look forward to seeing you again."

Need a scenario that isn't covered? Email hello@spareply.com with a paraphrased example (no PHI) and we'll add it to the next refresh of the template bank.

NEGATIVE-REVIEW PLAYBOOK

Negative-review triage checklist

The 8-step playbook for 1-star and 2-star reviews — pre-checks, lane decision, draft from template, safety check, post, log, and the Google policy flag.

PRODUCT

Med Spa Review + Local SEO Toolkit

$49 one-time · 7-day refund · Google Drive folder of editable assets.

SUPPORT

hello@spareply.com

A real human reads every email — same business day on most issues. spareply.com

SpaReply is informational. The toolkit is HIPAA-aware editorial guidance — not legal, medical, or compliance advice. Final compliance decisions belong with your provider, privacy officer, and counsel.

Negative-review triage checklist

SpaReply Med Spa Review + Local SEO Toolkit · editable copy Clinic: [Practice Name] · Owner of this checklist: [Practice Manager Name]

Negative reviews are the highest-stakes reply your team will write. Run this checklist before anything goes live. The goal isn't to win the argument — it's to make the next reader feel like the clinic is a calm, careful place.

Pre-checks · do these before you write a word

- ☐ Confirm the review is on Google Business Profile (not Yelp / Reddit / RealSelf — those have separate playbooks).
 - ☐ Confirm it's a real guest, not a competitor or bot. If it looks fake, see step 8 below.
 - ☐ Note the star rating. 1& 2& always go to the practice manager before posting. 3& may go to the front-desk lead with practice-manager review.
 - ☐ Pull a tracker row open before drafting — date, guest first name, star rating, category, provider.
-

The 8-step triage

1. Acknowledge within 24 business hours

A 1- or 2-star review left unanswered for a week reads worse than the review itself. Front-desk lead pings the practice manager the same day; the public reply does not need to be perfect, only careful.

- ☐ Practice manager pinged within 4 business hours of the review going live.
- ☐ Public reply drafted within 24 business hours.

2. Identify the guest internally — quietly

Search your booking system for the name in the review. Note their last visit, provider, and any prior issues in the internal tracker. Do not reference any of that in the public reply.

- ☐ Found in booking system (or marked "no record found").

- ☐ Last visit date and provider noted in the tracker only.
- ☐ Prior issues, if any, noted in the tracker only.

3. Decide the lane: clinical, operational, billing, or hostile

Each lane has a different default reply.

- ☐ Clinical !' routes to a licensed provider. Public reply offers a private channel; the actual conversation happens with the provider.
- ☐ Operational (wait time, room turnover, communication) !' routes to the practice manager. Public reply acknowledges, names no excuse, points to private follow-up.
- ☐ Billing or scheduling !' routes to the office manager. Public reply moves the conversation offline.
- ☐ Hostile / bot-like !' calm public reply, no debate. Flag through GBP if it violates Google's policy.

4. Draft the public reply from the closest template

Use the negative-review templates in the template-bank doc. Replace placeholders. Cut anything that names a treatment, outcome, or scope. Keep the public reply under 90 words.

- ☐ Started from a template, not a blank page.
- ☐ Bracketed placeholders replaced.
- ☐ Under 90 words.
- ☐ No clinical specifics, no liability admission, no public refund offer.

5. Run the 7-question pre-post safety check

- ☐ Did the guest write the detail publicly first?
- ☐ Is the reply free of treatment specifics the guest did not name?
- ☐ Free of outcome promises (skin cleared, pain gone, results lasted)?
- ☐ Was anything sensitive moved to a private channel?
- ☐ Has a second person at [Practice Name] read this?
- ☐ Does the tone match a calm, well-run clinic?
- ☐ Are we within 24 business hours of the review going live?

If any answer is "no," send the draft back to the practice manager.

6. Post the public reply, then send the private follow-up

Public reply goes live first. Then the practice manager sends a private email or call referencing the offer in the public reply. The private follow-up is where the actual resolution happens.

- ☐ Public reply posted.
- ☐ Private follow-up sent within 1 business day of posting.
- ☐ Channel of follow-up noted (email / phone / both).

7. Log it in the tracker — every time

Date · guest first name · star rating · category · provider · public reply link · private follow-up status · resolution. The log is what turns review noise into operational signal at the monthly roll-up.

- ☐ Row added to the tracker.
- ☐ Public reply link captured.
- ☐ Resolution updated when the private conversation closes.

8. Escalate flags or report fakes through Google

If a review violates Google's policy (off-topic, fake, conflict of interest, hate speech), flag it through your GBP dashboard. Don't argue with it publicly while you wait — post the calm default reply, then flag.

- ☐ Flagged through GBP if applicable.
- ☐ Screenshot kept in the tracker for evidence.
- ☐ Re-flag if not actioned within 14 days.

The "do not post" list

If any of these are true, stop and bring it to the practice manager before any public reply goes live.

- The guest names a clinical adverse event.
- The guest names a regulator (state board, FDA, OSHA, OCR).
- The guest threatens legal action or names an attorney.
- The reply you drafted confirms a treatment the guest did not name.
- The reply you drafted apologizes for a specific outcome.
- The reply offers a refund, comp, or credit publicly.
- You can't answer "yes" to all seven safety-check questions.

Owner sign-off

I confirm the public reply for the review dated [Review Date] meets the SpaReply HIPAA-aware editorial guardrails and the [Practice Name] reply policy.

- Practice manager: _____ Date: _____
- Second reader: _____ Date: _____

For toolkit access issues or a missing file, email hello@spareply.com.

4-WEEK CONTENT CALENDAR

Google Business Profile + content calendar

Four weeks of GBP posts, review work, email, and SEO focus — drop into Google Sheets, assign owners, ship.

PRODUCT

Med Spa Review + Local SEO Toolkit

$49 one-time · 7-day refund · Google Drive folder of editable assets.

SUPPORT

hello@spareply.com

A real human reads every email — same business day on most issues. spareply.com

SpaReply is informational. The toolkit is HIPAA-aware editorial guidance — not legal, medical, or compliance advice. Final compliance decisions belong with your provider, privacy officer, and counsel.

Week 1 · Reset

Replies cleared, cadence set

Day	Channel	Angle	Post draft	Owner	Status
Monday	GBP	Spring glow plan	Spring glow plan in [City]: Hydrafacial + LED finishing — three weekly slots open this week. Members save 15%. Booking link in our profile.	[Front-desk lead]	Draft
Wednesday	GBP	Practice manager intro	Meet [Practice Manager Name] — the person you'll reach if anything in your visit needs a second look. Same-day reply, every weekday. Email in profile.	[Practice manager]	Draft
Tuesday	Reviews	Open queue clear	Clear the open review queue. Reply to every 5–4 star within 48 hours. Escalate any 1–2 star to the practice manager today.	[Front-desk lead]	Draft
Thursday	Email	Re-engagement	Re-engagement note to guests not seen in 90+ days — short, no-pressure, link to a 'review your plan' call.	[Practice manager]	Draft
Friday	SEO	GBP services audit	Update the GBP services list, attributes, and hours. Add three recent treatment-room photos with descriptive filenames (no patient images).	[Owner]	Draft

Week 2 · Provider + service trust

Show who works there and how

Day	Channel	Angle	Post draft	Owner	Status
Monday	GBP	Provider spotlight	Meet [Provider first name] — [years] years of aesthetic experience, conservative philosophy, and a calm bedside manner. Booking with [Provider first name] is open Wednesday and Friday afternoons.	[Front-desk lead]	Draft

Wednesd ay	GBP	Behind -the-scenes sterile prep	Treatment-room turnover at our [City] clinic: sterile prep, fresh linens, and a 10-minute reset between every guest. The reason your visit feels calm is because the back-of-house runs on a clock.	[Practice manager]	Draft
Tuesday	Reviews	Run the safety check	Run the 7-question safety check on every reply this week. Have a second team member read each one before posting.	[Front-desk lead]	Draft
Thursday	Email	Membership math	Send the membership-math email: when the membership pencils out, what's included, who it's for. No discount push.	[Practice manager]	Draft
Friday	SEO	Treatment page audit	Audit your top 3 treatment pages for a clear price range, FAQ, and what to expect. Link each one from the GBP services list.	[Owner]	Draft

Week 3 · Local SEO + content

Be findable for the questions guests already ask

Day	Channel	Angle	Post draft	Owner	Status
Monday	GBP	FAQ first consult	First consult at [Practice Name]: 30 minutes, no pressure, full pricing on paper before you decide anything. We'd rather you book the right plan than the most expensive one. Open consults this week.	[Front-desk lead]	Draft
Wednesday	GBP	Neighborhood mention	Two blocks from [local landmark], parking validated for guests in the [neighborhood] garage. We see a lot of our neighbors — bring a referral and you both get a treatment credit.	[Practice manager]	Draft
Tuesday	Reviews	Mine for signal	Mine the last 30 days of reviews for one repeating compliment and one repeating concern. Take both to Friday's huddle.	[Front-desk lead]	Draft

Thursday	Email	Skin prep education	Education email — skin prep that helps every treatment. No offer attached. Builds the trust well for week 4.	[Practice manager]	Draft
Friday	SEO	City or treatment article	Publish (or refresh) one city-page or treatment-page article answering a real question from your reviews. Internal link from the homepage.	[Owner]	Draft

Week 4 · Offer + measure

Lean into what's converting, measure what's not

Day	Channel	Angle	Post draft	Owner	Status
Monday	GBP	Seasonal offer or gift card	Gift cards in any amount, instant email delivery, no expiration. The most-redeemed denomination is $150 — covers a Hydrafacial or starts a membership month. Buy through our profile.	[Front-desk lead]	Draft
Wednesday	GBP	Review-driven trust post	What guests in [City] tell us most often: the visit felt calm, the pricing was clear, and the team listened. That's the standard. Read more in our reviews — and let us know how we can do better.	[Practice manager]	Draft
Tuesday	Reviews	Monthly roll-up	Run the monthly roll-up: count by star rating, by category, by provider. Share the one-page summary with the practice manager.	[Front-desk lead]	Draft
Thursday	Email	Soft offer	Soft offer email — the right offer for your seasonal cadence (membership month, package starter, gift card). One CTA, one link.	[Practice manager]	Draft
Friday	SEO	GBP insights review	Pull GBP insights: searches, calls, direction requests. Compare to last month. Pick the metric you'll move next month and write it down.	[Owner]	Draft

LOCAL SEO PROMPTS

Local SEO + GBP prompt pack

13 GBP post angles, a treatment-page outline, and city / neighborhood angles — the prompts that pair with the 4-week calendar.

PRODUCT

Med Spa Review + Local SEO Toolkit

$49 one-time · 7-day refund · Google Drive folder of editable assets.

SUPPORT

hello@spareply.com

A real human reads every email — same business day on most issues. spareply.com

SpaReply is informational. The toolkit is HIPAA-aware editorial guidance — not legal, medical, or compliance advice. Final compliance decisions belong with your provider, privacy officer, and counsel.

Local SEO + GBP prompt pack

| SpaReply Med Spa Review + Local SEO Toolkit · editable copy Clinic: [Practice Name] · City: [City]

Thirteen Google Business Profile post angles and a short prompt pack for the treatment pages on your site. Pair each GBP post with one real, non-stock image of your treatment area, your team, or your front desk. No patient images, no before/after that names a guest.

Cadence

- GBP posts: 1–2 per week. Don't bunch them on one day.
 - Treatment-page edits: one page per month, paired with the GBP post that links to it.
 - Photo refresh: three new clinic photos per month, descriptive filenames.
-

13 GBP post angles

1. Spring glow plan

Spring glow plan in [City]: Hydrafacial + LED finishing — three weekly slots open this week. Members save 15%. Booking link in our profile.

2. Pre-event prep

Wedding, reunion, or photoshoot on the calendar? Our practice manager can map a 4–6 week prep timeline that fits around the event — no surprises, no rush. Reply or book a consult to start.

3. Membership spotlight

Our [City] membership covers a monthly facial, member-only injector pricing, and priority booking for laser packages. The math works for guests who come in more than once a quarter. Details in profile.

4. Provider spotlight (no clinical claims)

Meet [Provider first name] — [years] years of aesthetic experience, conservative philosophy, and a calm bedside manner. Booking with [Provider first name] is open Wednesday and Friday afternoons.

5. Behind the scenes · sterile prep

Treatment-room turnover at our [City] clinic: sterile prep, fresh linens, and a 10-minute reset between every guest. The reason your visit feels calm is because the back-of-house runs on a clock.

6. FAQ · what to expect at a first consult

First consult at [Practice Name]: 30 minutes, no pressure, full pricing on paper before you decide anything. We'd rather you book the right plan than the most expensive one. Open consults this week.

7. Local trust · neighborhood mention

Two blocks from [local landmark], parking validated for guests in the [neighborhood] garage. We see a lot of our neighbors — bring a referral and you both get a treatment credit.

8. Education · skin-prep without selling

Three habits that make any treatment work better: SPF every morning, a gentle retinoid at night, and hydration the day before your visit. Save this post — the front desk gets asked weekly.

9. Off-season offer

Laser packages are most effective in the cooler months. Booking now means starting your series before [month] and finishing before summer. Membership pricing applies — message us for the plan.

10. Holiday gift card

Gift cards in any amount, instant email delivery, no expiration. The most-redeemed denomination is $150 — covers a Hydrafacial or starts a membership month. Buy through our profile.

11. Re-engagement · we miss you

Haven't been in since spring? Your skin's needs change with the seasons. Our practice manager can review what worked last time and recommend a refreshed plan — no fee for the review call.

12. Trust signal · review-driven

What guests in [City] tell us most often: the visit felt calm, the pricing was clear, and the team listened. That's the standard. Read more in our reviews — and let us know how we can do better.

13. Seasonal facial focus

Cooler air, drier skin: this month's facial focuses on barrier repair — gentle exfoliation, peptide boost, and a calming mask. 50-minute appointment, member pricing applies. Book through our profile.

Treatment-page outline · copy/paste

Use this outline for each treatment page on the [Practice Name] site. The goal is to answer the questions a [City] guest already asks in reviews and in consult calls.

1. What it is, in plain language — one paragraph, no marketing.
 2. Who it's a fit for — three to five short bullets, written as guest-facing language ("you" not "patients").
 3. What to expect at the visit — appointment length, comfort level, downtime, follow-up cadence.
 4. Pricing range — give a range, not "starting at." If you offer a membership, name what it changes.
 5. Provider notes — which providers at [Practice Name] perform this, and how to book with a specific one.
 6. FAQ — six questions pulled from real review responses and consult notes. Plain answers, no clinical claims.
 7. Internal links — link to the membership page, two related treatment pages, and the consult-booking page.
 8. GBP linkback — the treatment page should be linked from the GBP services list and from at least one GBP post per quarter.
-

City / neighborhood angles

If you serve more than one neighborhood, write one short page per area — not a thin "[Practice Name] [neighborhood]" copy-paste. Each page should answer:

- Who you serve there — the typical guest profile in plain language.
 - Where you are — landmark, parking, transit. No address only.
 - Provider hours for that area — if certain providers are in-clinic on certain days.
 - What's specific to that neighborhood — a memberships angle, a local partnership, a specific pre-event prep cadence (wedding venues, conference hotels, photographers).
-

What not to write on a GBP post or treatment page

- No before/after photos of named guests.
- No "results last [N] months" outcome claims unless your providers approved the wording.
- No "FDA-approved" language for off-label uses.
- No "the only [X] in [City]" language unless you can prove it on Monday.
- No staff scope language ("our top injector") on the GBP post — keep it on the treatment page where it can be qualified.

For a missing prompt or a city angle that isn't covered, email hello@spareply.com.

OPERATING CADENCE · PRINT & TAPE

Operating cadence

The week, on a single page: daily 10-minute slot, daily 15-minute approval, the Tuesday 20-minute SOP, the Friday huddle, and the monthly + quarterly review.

PRODUCT

Med Spa Review + Local SEO Toolkit

$49 one-time · 7-day refund · Google Drive folder of editable assets.

SUPPORT

hello@spareply.com

A real human reads every email — same business day on most issues. spareply.com

SpaReply is informational. The toolkit is HIPAA-aware editorial guidance — not legal, medical, or compliance advice. Final compliance decisions belong with your provider, privacy officer, and counsel.

Operating cadence — print and tape next to the front desk

SpaReply Med Spa Review + Local SEO Toolkit · editable copy Clinic: [Practice Name] · Last reviewed: [Date]

The whole point of the toolkit is that review work fits inside this cadence — not the other way around. Drop this into your shared calendar, your SOP wiki, or a printed sheet next to the front desk.

Daily · 10 minutes — Front-desk lead

- Pull yesterday's new reviews from Google Business Profile.
 - Draft replies for 4- and 5-star reviews into the shared doc.
 - Flag anything 3 stars or below for [Practice Manager Name] — do not draft those publicly until cleared.
 - Add each draft as a new row in the tracker (status: drafted).
-

Daily · 15 minutes — Practice manager

- Approve the 4–5 star drafts the front-desk lead prepared.
 - Post the approved replies, capture the public-reply link in the tracker, mark the row "posted."
 - Personally draft (or co-draft) every 1–2 star reply with the front-desk lead before posting.
 - Send the private follow-up email or call for any 1–2 star review.
-

Tuesday · 20 minutes — Front-desk lead

Run the weekly SOP block:

1. Triage anything that's still open from the past 7 days.
-

2. Draft replies for any 4–5 star reviews that haven't been touched.
 3. Run the 7-question safety check on each.
 4. Post the approved replies, log to the tracker.
 5. Scan the last 7 days for one signal — a repeating compliment, a repeating concern, or a new staff name being praised — and bring it to Friday's huddle.
-

Friday · 10 minute huddle — Owner / practice manager / front-desk lead

- Share the one repeating compliment and one repeating concern from this week's reviews.
 - Decide one operational tweak for next week. Don't try to fix everything — pick one thing the team can actually move on.
 - Confirm coverage for the daily and Tuesday slots next week.
 - Note the decision in the tracker (a "huddle-decisions" tab is fine).
-

Monthly · 30 minutes — Practice manager

Roll up the tracker into a one-page summary:

- Total reviews this month, by star rating.
- Reviews by category: clinical, operational, billing, hostile, praise.
- Reviews by provider (named only when the guest named them publicly).
- One repeating compliment and one repeating concern.
- One operational change being made next month.
- Status of any open private follow-ups.

Share the one-pager with [Owner Name] and the providers. Keep the file in the toolkit Drive folder for [Practice Name].

Quarterly · 60 minutes — Owner

- Re-read the HIPAA-aware reply rules and the negative-review checklist.
 - Refresh placeholders in the template bank for any new providers, services, or pricing changes since the last review.
 - Review the GBP profile: services list, attributes, hours, photos.
 - Pick the next quarter's headline metric (calls, direction requests, searches, conversion to booked consult) and write the target down.
 - Confirm the toolkit Drive folder still has the latest version of every doc — the front desk shouldn't be working from a stale copy.
-

What gets escalated, and to whom

Trigger	Goes to	Same day or next?
Any 1& or 2& review	[Practice Manager Name]	Same business day
Clinical concern raised in any review	Provider on call: [Provider Name]	Same business day
Billing dispute in a review	[Office Manager Name]	Within 1 business day
Threat of legal action / regulator named	[Owner Name] + counsel	Same business day, before any reply
Apparent fake review	[Practice Manager Name] for GBP flag	Same week
Toolkit access or file issue	hello@spareply.com	Same business day

Refund and toolkit support

If the toolkit isn't useful for [Practice Name], email hello@spareply.com within 7 days of purchase for a full refund of the $49. No forms.

For access issues — missing files, broken Drive link, can't open a template — email hello@spareply.com with the email address used at checkout. Most issues are resolved the same business day.

